

The Blessed Sacrament Catholic Primary School

January 2018 Newsletter

Dear Parents and carers,

It has been a privilege working with staff and parents here at the Blessed Sacrament in the last few weeks. I will be here for the remainder of the term. Staff and governors are implementing action plans devised to ensure that any judgment made about the school is not long lasting.

S Tansey
Associate Headteacher

PACKED LUNCHES—please make sure you do not put chocolate or sweets in your child's packed lunch

Staff Updates

- Mr and Mrs Thompson are delighted to announce the safe arrival of baby Henry
- Welcome to Miss Ashfield who will continue to cover for Mrs Thompson in YR until she returns from maternity leave
- Unfortunately Miss Nightingale has had another admission to hospital. Her class will continue to be covered by Miss Connolly next week.

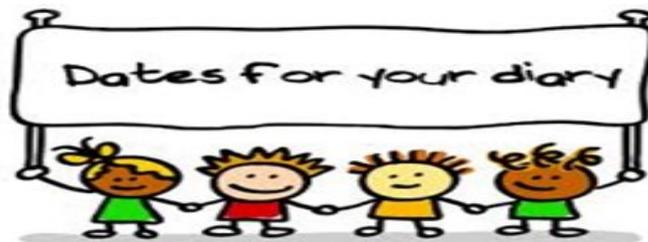

BOWS—We are still getting children wearing large bows in their hair for school. Please can you keep hair accessories to a minimum. Thank you.

Corpus Christi Catering

We are looking for someone to join our award winning catering team. We have a vacancy for a Catering Assistant based at the Blessed Sacrament kitchen for 10 hours per week (12 noon to 2pm). For further
